Welcome, Teacher NAO, a new member of LKKB

Who is NAO?

NAO, a humanoid (像人似的) robot from France (法國), has become a member of LKKB for a few months. The first NAO robot was invented (發明) in 2006. The NAO robot in LKKB is in his 5th version. This interactive (互動的) robot is a good partner for education and research.

What does NAO do?

NAO is not simply a robot for fun. He can perform various tasks (執行各種不同的任務). He can dance, catch objects, talk to students, tell a story, or even write.

NAO arouses students' learning interest in class and motivates them to get actively involved in learning through projects and teamwork. He is an innovative (創新的) learning tool for encouraging students to learn the basics of software programming.

Great Animation to Share

Lifted

If you like stories about aliens, Lifted would be a nice film for you. A young alien was having an examination in which he needed to abduct a human. He tried his very best but in the end he still failed in the exam.

It was a short Pixar animation (彼思動畫) directed by Gary Rydstrom in 2006. Lifted was nominated (獲提名) for Best Short Film (Animated) in the Oscars (奧斯卡) in 2006.

Review of Lifted

By 4A Nicole, Chung Yi Mei

One night, two aliens (外星人) were on a spaceship (太空船). The younger alien wanted to abduct (綁架) a sleeping human. There were so many switches (開關按鈕) on the spaceship. He could not take control over the switches. He tried many times to lift the human up to the spaceship but he could not. The examiner (考官) was not good because he did not help or give hints (提示) to the young alien. The young alien wanted to cry but he did not.

Although the young alien failed the examination and was sad, the examiner let him drive the spaceship home. The young alien was so excited that he crashed the spaceship and the human fell into a crater (隕石坑).

I enjoyed watching this film because it was funny. The aliens looked very cute and the young alien did not give up (放棄) e

Sanjay's Super Team

Sanjay's Super Team is also a short Pixar animation directed by Sanjay Patel. Patel was born into a Hindu (印度教的) family in America. Throughout his childhood (童年), he experienced the conflicts (矛盾) between the modern world and the Hindu traditions (傳統). He liked watching cartoons like Transformers, Looney Tunes, etc. He always found that it was boring to perform religious meditation (冥想).

Sanjay's Super Team was nominated for Best Animated Short Subject in the 43rd Annie Awards (安妮獎) and Best Short Film (Animated) in the Oscars.

Review of Sanjay's Super Team 5B Alice, Leung Wai Lam

I watched a great film, Sanjay's Super Team. There were two main characters (主角) in this short video. They were a dad and a son. The son was watching Super Team in the dining room while his father was praying. They disliked each other's activity. The dad wanted his son to pray in front of the Hindu Gods but his son wanted to watch a cartoon. The dad suddenly turned off the TV. His son was upset and was asked to pray. When the son was praying, something magical happened. The son saw the three stone statues (石像) in the room being attacked. They then tried hard to defeat (擊退) the opponent (敵人) but they failed. He broke the superman toy in his hand and the loud noise defeated the opponent. At the end of the film, the dad and the son were not angry with each other. They lived happily. The ending was heart warming. This is my favourite short film!

Survey about Chinese New Year

LKKB English Newspaper Team conducted a survey (進行調查) about Chinese New Year, in February 2016. The survey was done by asking our students randomly, questions about the festival. We interviewed about 200 students from P.1 to P.6. The following are the results of the survey.

Do you like Chinese New Year?

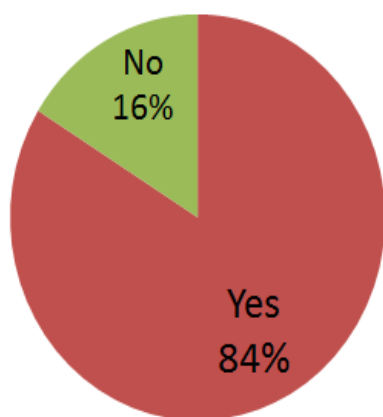

Figure 1

Favourite thing to do at Chinese New Year

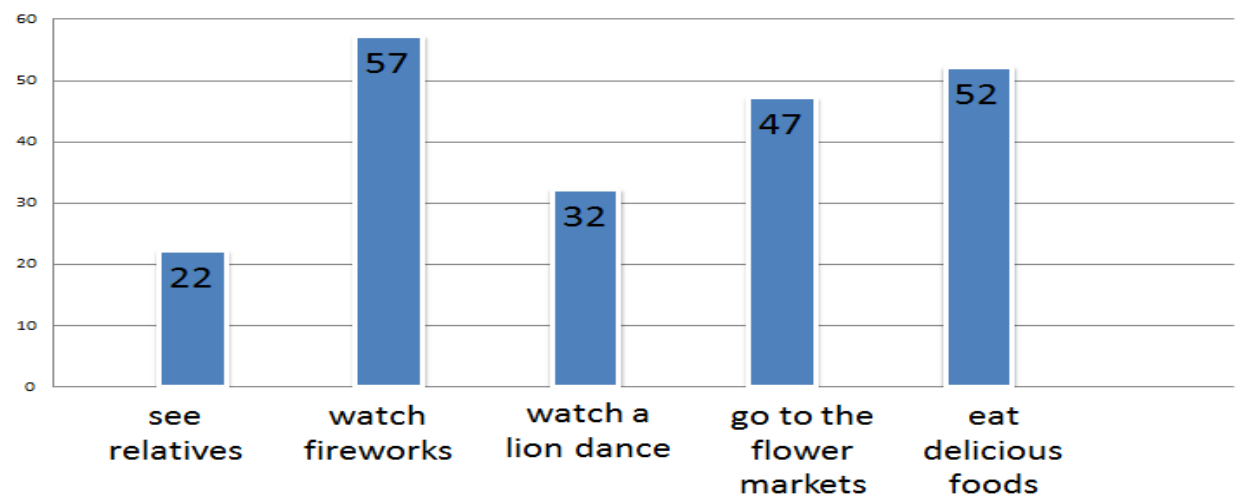

Figure 2

According to (根據) Figure 1 and Figure 2, 84% of the students like Chinese New Year. Watching fireworks (看煙花) is the most popular (受歡迎) activity, followed by eating delicious foods, with seeing relatives being the least popular. A lot of students thought that it was a boring activity.

Will you use your lucky money?

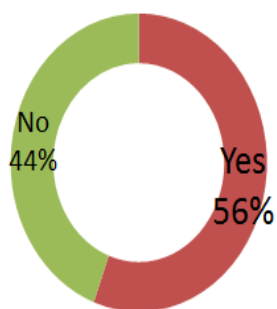

Figure 3

What will you do with your lucky money?

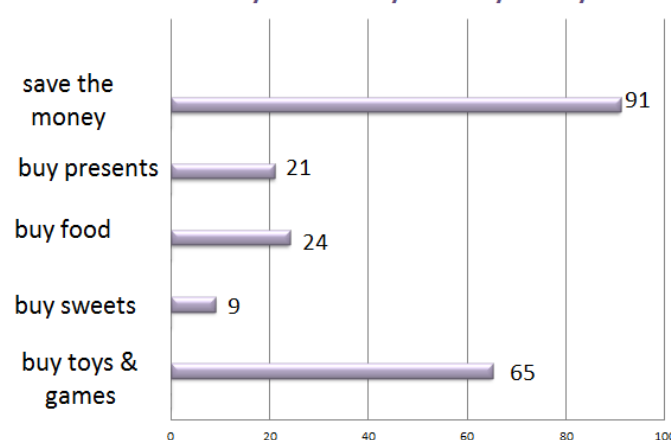

Figure 4

Will 2016, the year of the Monkey, be a good year?

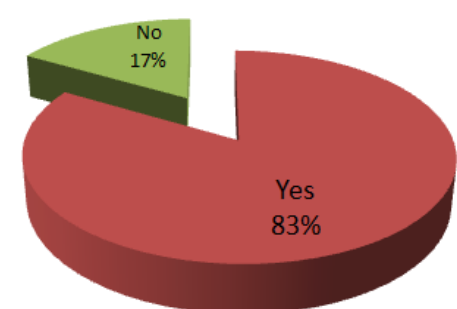

Figure 5

56% of the interviewees (受訪者) told us that they would use their lucky money. 44% of them would save (儲蓄) the money. For those who would use their lucky money, they would buy toys and games, food and some other presents.

Figure 5 showed that over three-quarters (四分之三) of the students thought 2016, the year of the Monkey, would be a good year.

A Radio Drama Script

If I Could Go Back in Time

Script written by 6A students:

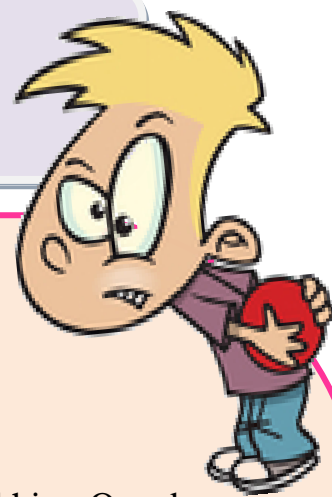

Torres Chiu Lok Hang, Sofia Hung Yu Man, Michael Mak Chin Wai, Kelly Yeung Yi, Yuki Cheung Yuet

CHARACTERS:

Torres (T)
A Villager, Kelly (K)

The fairy (F)
A witch, Sophia (S)

Torres's grandpa (TG)
Narrator (N)

The setting: In the Village

Part 1

N: This story is about a boy called Torres. He was a very selfish and greedy boy. Many people disliked him. One day, when Torres was going home, a fairy appeared.

F: You are too selfish. Now, I will make you to go back to the past to let you learn how to be a good person. Only if you can do it, then I will let you come back to the present. Ma-li MA-li home!

T: No! Ahhh!

N: Then Torres went back to the past and he was in a village. He woke up surprised.

N: He walked out of the house. Some people came and spoke to him.

TG: Hey! Do you feel good now? Yesterday, you were sleeping in the river. So, I let you take a rest in my house.

T: Grandpa! What are you doing? Why am I here? And why do you look so young today?

TG: Who is your grandpa?

T: You!

TG: What? I am not your grandpa. I don't know who you are. Here is the 'Generous Village.' All of our villagers are very generous.

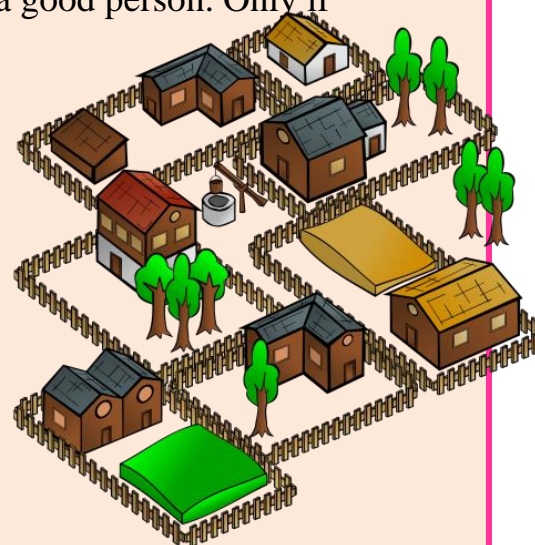

T: I come from the future. I want to go back to my world. You must help me!

K: How can we help you? How did you get here?

T: A fairy used a magic power to send me here. I was so greedy and selfish before so I think this is the reason why the fairy used the magic power to send me here. Please help me to be good or else I can't go back to the future!

TG, K: Okay! We can help you! We will help you become a generous person. Then, you can go back to the future.

T: Thank you very much!

Part 2

N: In the morning, his grandpa and a villager, Kelly, woke him up. They started to train Torres.

TG: Now we need to make some rules. If you break these rules, we will punish you. OK?

T: OK!

F: The first rule: When you get something, you have to share it with the people who live in this village.

TG: The second rule: You can just use the things that we gave you. You can't steal things in our village or other places.

K: These are all the rules. Do you have any objections?

T: No, I want to go back to the future. I will do everything you ask me to.

N: Then, his grandpa gave Torres some delicious pork.

TG: This is for you.

T: Thank you!

N: Then Torres started to eat and his grandpa kept on laughing.

T: Why are you laughing?

TG: Because you have broken the rules so I can punish you now. Ha! Ha!

T: Oh! My! God!

N: Kelly locked Torres in a room that only had water and some plates.

T: What? There are just a few things here. How can I live here? But if I give up now I can't go back to the future. What can I do?

N: Torres was impatient so he looked out of the windows and he saw the people near his room had a big roast pig. He wanted to steal it.

T: Ha! Ha! I can eat this, I am very lucky! Ha! Ha!

N: Then Torres started to eat the big pork and at the same time, Kelly came into Torres's room.

K: Ha! You broke the rules again. Ha! Now I need to punish you.
Ha! Ha!

T: Oh my God!

Part 3

N: After a while, Torres wanted to give up and his grandpa came up to Torres.

TG: Hey Torres! Why do you look so sad? Are you sick?

T: I am not sick. I just broke the rules twice already so I am very sad now. I want to give up.
But I can't. I want to go back to the future.

TG: You are right. So you can't give up. If you give up, you can't go back to the future. You must never give up.

T: Yes, I can't give up.

N: After that, Torres changed a lot. He shared things with others and he did not steal others' things.... Then, the fairy appeared.

F: Hey! Torres, do you remember me? Now you are a generous person. Everyone likes you very much. You are not selfish and greedy any more. You can go find the witch now.

T: Thank you! Can you kindly just send me back to the future?

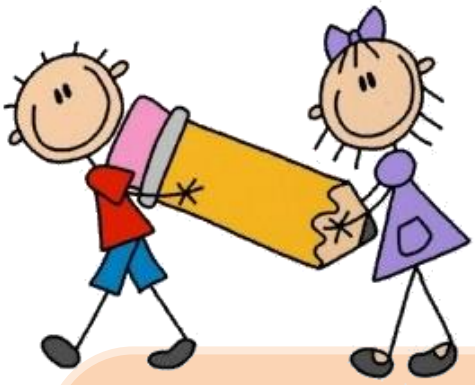

F: Yes. I will make you go back to the future now. But you must promise me that you will not be greedy and selfish anymore... OK?

T: OK! Goodbye Grandpa and Kelly and all of you! Bye!

F: Ma-li Ma-li home.

N: Then, Torres went back to the future.

At the Cake Shop By 4A Amy Chen Mei Yee

Last Sunday, Matthew wanted to buy a cake for his sister because it was her birthday. Matthew loves his sister very much.

He wanted to buy a cake as a present for her. He was looking at a chocolate cake and a strawberry cake. He thought the strawberry cake was cheaper but the chocolate cake was more delicious. The most important thing was that his sister liked chocolate very much. So he decided to buy the chocolate cake.

He went to the cashier and told the shopkeeper which cake he chose. He checked it, he felt satisfied. When he wanted to pay for the cake, he could not find his wallet. He was shocked and worried!

As it was nearly eight o'clock at night, the cake shop needed to close. Matthew went home sadly. He cried loudly. His sister asked, 'Matthew, what happened?' Matthew said, 'Today is your birthday. I planned to give you a surprise. I wanted to buy a cake as a birthday present for you. However, I was too careless. I forgot to bring my wallet. I could not buy the cake. I was so stupid!' His sister said, 'My lovely brother, I am so happy to have a brother like you in my life. You have already given me a good birthday present. It is your love! Mum has made a cake for me. Let's eat the cake together after dinner!' Finally, Matthew, his sister and his parents enjoyed the cake together after dinner. They had a great time.

Now and Then By 4B Andy Lau Chun On

Sixty years ago, Hong Kong was very different from today. Sixty years ago, people could only travel across Victoria Harbour by Star Ferry. The airport was in Kai Tak in Kowloon. It was smaller. Now people travel by train, the airport is in Chek Lap Kok, and the airport now is bigger.

Sixty years ago, people went shopping at markets. Now, people go shopping in shopping malls. The games children play are also different. In the past, children played hide-and seek and flew a kite. Nowadays, children play electronic games and computer games. Sixty years ago, people had radios. Now, people have digital cameras and mobile phones.

I think life now is better than life sixty years ago.

When We Were Little By 4A Cindy Chau Chun Lin

When I was five years old, I could do up my buttons by myself but I could not tie my shoelaces by myself. My friend Mico could get dressed by himself but he could not tie his shoelaces by himself. My friend Isabella could get dressed by herself. However, she could not tie her shoelaces by herself.

My friend Sam could comb his hair by himself but he could not make breakfast by himself. All of us could do a lot of things when we were five years old. We were very clever.

Being Late for School By 4D Kelvin Lam Cho Hei

Calvin liked playing computer games every day. One night, he played computer games for several hours. He slept at three o'clock in the morning. He forgot to set his alarm clock.

The next morning he woke up late. He did not have breakfast because he had no time. He ran to the bus stop but he missed the bus. He was worried. He had to wait for another bus. The teacher was very angry because Calvin was late for school. He said, 'You ought to set your alarm clock and go to bed early. You should come to school on time.'

Calvin felt sorry for being late for school. He promised the teacher, 'I'm going to go to bed earlier. I will not be late for school.' Calvin kept his word and was never late for school again.

Rewriting the Three Wishes By 5A Yuki Chiu Sum Yi

Last summer holiday, Lala and her sister lived in a candy house near a cookies forest. Every day, Lala went into the cookies forest to get cookies.

One morning, Lala went to get cookies as usual. She was about to get a lot of cookies when a magical cat appeared and begged her not to get the cookies and it would give her three wishes. Lala was very happy when she heard that. She came home happily.

Lala told her sister about the magical cat and the three wishes. Her sister was very happy. She thought that she would have a lot of teddy bears, a big candy house and a lot of jewels... Both of them were very happy. Lala said, 'I know we shall have a lot of things. But Just now, I am hungry. I wish I would have some cupcakes for dinner.'

As soon as she said the words, a pan of cupcakes was on the table. Lala stared at the cupcakes. Her sister was very angry and she scolded Lala. Lala felt sad. She wished the cupcakes could hang on her sister's mouth. Suddenly, the cupcakes were hung on Lala's sister's mouth. Lala gave the cupcakes a pull but they stuck. Lala used her last wish and wished for the cupcakes would be back on the pan. The cupcakes were back on the pan eventually. Lala and her sister ate the cupcakes sadly.

Visiting Lantau By 5B Winky Tam Wing Hei

Last Sunday, my family and I had a wonderful trip to Lantau Island. First we went to Tung Chung. We went there by taxi because it was fast and comfortable. It took sixty minutes. We went there because we wanted to look at the beautiful view from the cable car. When we arrived there, we first went to the Ngong Ping Visitor Centre to seek some information. Then we rode on the cable car. After that, we took photos with the Big Buddha.

Then, we went to Tai O. We went there by bus because we could look at the nice view. It took fifteen minutes. We went there because we wanted to look at the old temples and bought salted fish and dried seafood for our uncle. We first went to eat seafood because it was already lunch time. Then, we enjoyed the nice view.

We felt glad because we could visit a lot of wonderful places.

My Dream Job By 6A Vincent Yim Tak Chun

My dream job is to be a doctor. I want to be a good doctor when I grow up. Being a doctor is meaningful. If I become a doctor, I will help sick people. The sick people will be saved.

There are some job requirements. If you want to be a good doctor, you need to fulfill these requirements. First, you need to be careful when you do the operations for the patients. If you are not careful, the patient will fall into danger. Second, you need to be smart so that you can find new ways to cure the illnesses. If you find some new ways to solve the illnesses, you can help many people around the world. Third, you need to be patient. It is because sometimes you may do operations for a long time. If you are not patient, maybe you will give up when you are doing operations. As a result, you can't save people.

If you become a doctor, you will earn a lot of money. If you earn a lot of money, you can help sick and poor people. It is a happy and meaningful thing to do so.

I think I am a suitable person to do this job. It is because I am careful and smart. I need to do some housework so that I can train myself to be more patient. I also need to study hard in the future so that I can learn more about different body parts.

I hope I can be a good doctor in the future so that I can save people.

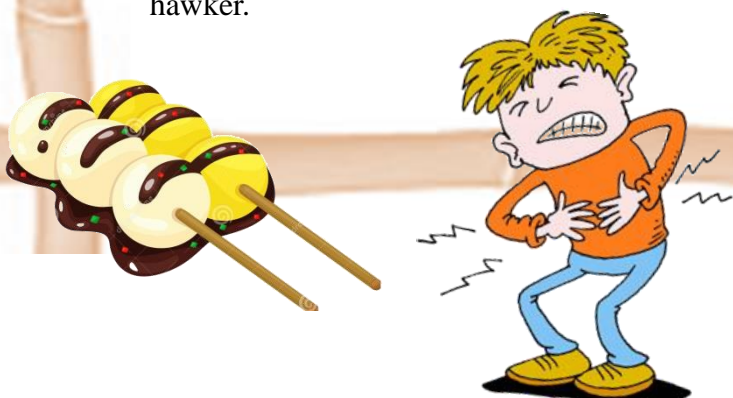

How Karen Spent Her Pocket Money By 6B Hendy Chau Chun Hei

Yesterday was Karen's birthday. Karen received her pocket money from her mother. She felt excited.

In the afternoon, Karen felt hungry so she wanted to buy something to eat. She found there was a hawker who sold fish balls near her home. She bought some to eat. The food was tasty. She ate a lot.

When she went home, her stomach ached because she ate too many curry fish balls. She told her mother that she was very sick. Karen's mother sent her to hospital. The doctor gave her some medicine and told her not to eat food from a hawker.

A Letter to Principal By 6C Yoyo Ding Jia Yue

Dear principal,

How are you? We want to help World Vision raise money for the poor children in Laos. The Laotian people have many problems.

The people do not have enough food because the fields are too dry and therefore people cannot grow any plants. The people cannot go to school because Laos has no money to build schools. The people do not have enough clothes to wear because they have no money to buy new clothes.

We can sell flags, sell raffle tickets, run a second-hand stall or run a craft stall to raise money. We could go on a charity walk too.

I am looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely,
6C students

Right or Wrong?

What are the pros and cons?

Should Students Bring Mobile Phones to School?

By 5A Shelly He Ling Ting

Lots of students have their mobile phones. Many of them want to bring their mobile phones to school but I think students should not be allowed to do so.

Firstly, students will be distracted. They cannot pay attention because the mobile phone games are very attractive. Some of them may play the games in class.

Secondly, students will be proud of their trendiest mobile phones. They may bring their phones to school only to show off to the others. We are just students. We should not spend so much money on buying IT stuffs and the students who cannot afford expensive mobile phones may feel uncomfortable about it.

Thirdly, mobile phones have many different functions like photo-taking and video-recording. Some students may use their phones to take pictures and record video of other students and even teachers without permission.

To sum up, I think students should not bring mobile phones to school because of the above reasons.

By 5A Shelly He Ling Ting

Students nowadays may think that they should be allowed to bring mobile phones to school but in my point of view, I think they should not. There are a lot of bad things that can happen if students bring mobile phones to school.

Firstly, students may play with their phones in the lessons. Some students may say that they will only play mobile phone games in recess time. However, when they have started the game, they may not want to stop when the bell rings.

Secondly, students may talk on the phone during recess time. If there are a lot of students talking on the phones in the classroom, it will be very noisy. The noise of students talking and mobile phones ringing will disturb other students.

Thirdly, students may record video of the teachers. It is very impolite and not respectful to the teachers. If they record the students punished by teachers and laugh at them, it is a kind of bullying.

In conclusion, students should not bring mobile phones to school because students may be distracted from their study. Although it is convenient to bring phones with them so that they can contact their parents anytime they like, it brings out a lot of problems in schools. Therefore, I think students should not bring mobile phones to school.

SHOULD STUDENTS BE GIVEN LESS HOMEWORK?

By 4A Leo Tang Siu Fung

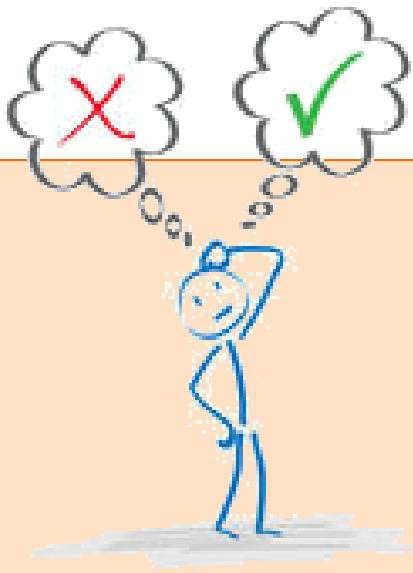

I believe that most students do not like doing homework and students these days spend a lot of time on homework every day. As a student, I think we should be given less homework.

First of all, doing homework makes students tired. It is because we have many pieces of homework to complete after the long school day. Many of us spend a few hours on our homework and we do not have enough sleep.

In addition, students will have no time to chat with their family if they spend most of the time doing homework. We even need to do revision after doing homework. I do not think it is good for the whole family.

Last but not least, a lot of students are short-sighted because of doing homework. Their eyes get tired easily but they do not have time to take rest. Therefore, they need to wear glasses.

In conclusion, I think students should get less homework.

By 6A Kenny Mui Wai Lok

I strongly agree that think students should get less homework.

Firstly, if students have too much homework, they will not have enough time to do the things they like. For example, watching TV, doing exercise and playing musical instruments. Students should have more time to do something to relax themselves.

Secondly, if students spend too much time on doing homework and have only a little time for communicating with parents. This is not good for their relationships.

Thirdly, if students sit on their chair and do homework for a very long time, it is bad for their health. For example, they will be short-sighted and they will get tired very easily.

Above all, doing too much homework is bad for students.

Should Students Wear School Uniforms to School?

By 5B Alice Leung Wai Lam

A lot of students want to wear casual wear to school but I think it is bad. Students must wear school uniforms to school.

To start with, school uniforms help the whole group to look neat and tidy. It is a symbol of unity and identification. When you are wearing your school uniform, everyone knows which school you come from. It gives students a strong sense of belonging.

In addition, if students wear their own clothes, students from richer families may wear more beautiful and expensive clothes. They may wear different clothes every day. They will show off to the poor students.

What's more, different people have different styles. Some students may wear strange clothes to schools and make people laugh. It will be difficult for students to pay attention in class.

To sum up, students should wear school uniforms to school.

By 5A Angel Leung Sze Ching

Many students do not like wearing school uniforms. They think that school uniforms are uncomfortable and not trendy. However, I think students should wear school uniforms to school.

Firstly, wearing school uniforms make students look neat, tidy and smart. If everyone wears different clothes, the whole group of people will not look like a team.

Secondly, uniforms are a sign of identification because others can recognize us as students of our own school. If we do not wear a school uniform, we cannot identify strangers from us in our schools. Sometimes, it can be quite dangerous.

Lastly, we do not have to spend time choosing the clothes to wear every morning. If we can wear other clothes, some students may spend too much time on choosing clothes. They will be late for school then.

Wonderful Scenery

Canada is such a big country. There are many beautiful places. It is a paradise for nature lovers. Here are two of the most popular destinations of all:

Banff National Park (班夫國家公園) is located in the province of Alberta. It is the largest national park in Canada. In this park, visitors can see a lot of wild animals (野生動物) like black bears (黑熊), bison (野牛), wolves, etc.

Niagara Falls (尼亞加拉瀑布) is on the border (邊界) of Canada's province of Ontario and the United States' New York State. It is probably the most well-known tourist spot in Canada. Many tourists take a cruise trip to experience the strength of the Niagara Falls. At night, the view is gorgeous (絢麗的) because there is a light show. Sometimes, there will be a fireworks display.
