Last night my parents and I went to the fashion show. The show was held in Tin Shui Wai Town Hall. There were many models. I felt excited.

The first model was Carl. He was the man with the big eyes, the small mouth and the tall nose. He was the man in the suit and the bow tie. He had a lovely smile. He was very handsome.

The second model was Amy. She was the lady with the long hair and the big nose. She was the lady in the long red dress. She was taking a handbag. She was very beautiful.

The last model was Tony. He was the man with the long face, the big ears and the small eyes. He was taking some playing card. He was very cool.

I liked Tony best because he was very handsome and cool. I thought the fashion show was interesting. I felt excited. I will go again next year because all the models were very beautiful.
