School Picnic

P.4A Joey Zhou Chun In

On 11th November, all P.3 to P.4 students went on a picnic with our teachers. We went to Sai Kung East Country Park this year.

I bought some food and shared it with my friends. I also played games with my classmates. It was great fun!

I saw some bees in the park. I was scared. We went to find our class teacher, Miss Wong, for help. I thought the bees were afraid of Miss Wong because they flew away to their nest when they saw Miss Wong. Anyway, it was really a nice and fun day.

P.5A Catherine Tam Yuk Yan

Our school had a picnic on 11th November. The destination this year was Sai Kung East Country Park. I went there with my teachers and classmates.

I was very excited on that day because I ate a lot of yummy food. Apart from that, we went hiking. I enjoyed the walk because the view there was so wonderful. I felt so comfortable in the natural environment.

I especially enjoyed the picnic day this year because this is my last year to be with my classmates and teachers. I will graduate and leave this school soon.

P.6A Dick Chau Kam To

On 11th November, we went on a picnic to Sai Kung East Country Park. I went there with my classmates and teachers.

We went hiking. We also had a barbecue. One of my classmates wanted to eat chicken wings but they were burnt. He had to throw them away. It was so funny.

I enjoyed going hiking the best because the air was clean and the view was beautiful on that day.

We had a nice but tiring day. When we went back to school, we all fell asleep on the school bus. I will never forget about that day.

There was only one waitress in the restaurant. She was busy. The waitress served the customers rudely. We were listening to music when we were waiting for the dishes. We saw a few cockroaches and rubbish on the ground. The staff did not notice that and she was delivering a drink. I was very angry and disappointed. It seemed like a customer was complaining about the service. The man complained that the food was nasty. However, the staff was impolite to him.

I was afraid of the cockroaches. Then I talked to the manager. I asked him to kill all the cockroaches. Finally, I was very angry and left. The restaurant was very poor.

How Karen Spent Her Pocket Money P. 6A Lavender Chan Siu Yiu

Yesterday morning, Karen was at home. Her mum gave her some pocket money. Karen was surprised because she never thought that her mum would give her any pocket money. She wanted to buy a lot of snacks, such as curry fish balls, siu mai and so on.

So, she went out to buy food. On the street, those delicious food attracted Karen's attention. Karen bought fish balls from a hawker. Karen enjoyed the fish balls so much.

After about half an hour, Karen came back home. She sat on the sofa. Suddenly, she felt pain. She had a stomachache. She cried loudly. Her mum asked what happened to her. Karen answered that she had a stomachache. Karen's mum took her to the hospital. The doctor gave her an injection and some medicine. She felt upset about that.

This story tells us not to buy the food from hawkers on the street. Otherwise, it is easy to get sick.

When Peter's mother went away from the kitchen, Peter came in. Peter opened the lid of the bowl and the bowl suddenly fell off. The soup splashed on Peter. He was in pain and scared. Peter screamed loudly too.

His neighbour heard his loud scream so he took Peter to the hospital immediately. Peter was frightened and his mother was nervous. At last, the doctor said Peter was fine. His mother felt relieved.

After the accident, Peter learnt that the kitchen is a very dangerous place. His mother also learnt a lesson. She would be very careful when handling the cookware.

Technology Review

Apple iPad Air 2 P.6A Lucia Chong Long Ngai

I have been lucky enough to review the new Apple iPad Air 2. It is a computer tablet. We can use it to play games, take photos and surf the Net. It is thin, light and user-friendly. It has an excellent camera, a clear screen and long battery life. It works fast. Though it is quite expensive and easy to break, it is still the best tablet in the market. I will give five scores out of five to it.

Lamborghini Veneno Roadster P.6A Yoyo Chan Siu Yiu

I have been lucky enough to review the new supercar. It is called Lamborghini Veneno Roadster. It will be released in January 2015. This supercar is made in Italy. It has a 6.5 litre, 750 bhp engine. The top speed is 221 mph and a 0-60 mph time of 2.9 seconds. It will be the fastest sport car in the world.

The pros of this car is that it is fast, lightweight, powerful and beautiful. It is available in many different colours. However, it is too expensive. It costs 35 million HKD. I think this car can be sold at a lower price so that more people can buy it. I will give it two scores out of 5.

Nintendo 3DS P.4B Winky Tam Wing Hei

I have been lucky enough to review the new portable game console. Its name is the Nintendo 3DS. It will be released in December 2014. It has an improved battery life (now 6 hours) and improved 3DS which now offers 3D gaming without the need for wearing 3D glasses.

Comparing it with the popular game console Sony PSP, it is cheaper. It provides a wide selection of games but is slower than the Sony. I think it is good news for game lovers.

Speech Festival

P.6A Tony Liu Haodong

On that day, we had rehearsal before we went to Tuen Mun Town Hall in the afternoon. We lost in the competition. I was so regretful because I thought we didn't try our best. I hope we can try our best next time.

P.5A Christy Ho Cheuk Lam

Last Thursday, I joined the Speech Festival with some other P.5 and P.6 fellow students. We went to Tuen Mun Town Hall for the competition.

Many students from different schools joined the competition too. I was a bit nervous but I thought we performed well. Though we did not get any prizes, we enjoyed the competition so much because we learnt a lot in the training.
